I jumped off the bus before it stopped and began walking down the street. As I had arrived early, I decided to look at the shop windows before going home. The idea made me quite happy, but at the same time I had the bad feeling that I had forgotten something. I stopped by the shop and began searching my pockets. All of a sudden, I remembered that I had left my bag on the bus, and it was full of important papers. The thought was enough to make me start running down the street, though, by now, the bus was out of sight.
